RE: MUR 6165

Dear Ms. Collins

The Patriots for Crimmins Committee (#C00441410) responds to MUR 6165 as follows:

1. Our payments to Mr. Baron were for his alleged maintenance of a campaign website. We treated these payments as regularly recurring administrative expenses such as rent, utilities and salaries. Under CFR 104.11(b), these payments are not considered reportable debts until they are past due. As far as we knew, no valid payments were "past due" to Mr. Barron as of December 31, 2008.
2. We do not believe that Mr. Baron's claims rise to the level of a bona fide disagreement between himself and the Committee. The Committee disputes the alleged value of Mr. Baron's services and the alleged agreed upon price for those alleged services. However, without acknowledging any admission of liability or a waiver of any claims against Mr. Baron, and based on the information supplied to us in the MUR, we will now report a "disputed debt" owed to Mr. Baron. We have electronically filed an amended year-end report to show this disputed debt.
3. If any payments are ultimately made to settle this disputed debt, those payments will be raised and spent and reported in compliance with the FECA.
4. As to the amount of the debt, it is our understanding that debt claims and liabilities are subject to relevant State law, and the Committee's 'responsibility' for satisfying the obligations would have to be determined with reference to those laws.
- 5 The Committee denies the allegations that the candidate acted improperly in the alleged attempt to settle this alleged debt. Furthermore, under California Evidence Code Sec. 1152, statements made in settlement negotiations, including offering an amount to settle, can not be used to prove the Candidate's or Committee's liability for this alleged debt.

If I can do anything further to assist you in resolving this matter, please let me know.
Thank You.
